

Data Protection

From the 25th May the government new privacy comes into effect as a result of this we would like you to read of our privacy policy for further references. This policy explains how and when we collect your personal information within our companies and how we keep it safe. Nothing in this privacy policy shall limit your statutory rights in relation to your personal data.

What information do we collect?

The information we collect from you enables us to create a licence agreement or to offer you services that we provide and in case of emergency. This information can include personal information about you and other people you may include on a licence, information that we collect automatically and personal information we collect from other sources.

We may keep a record of correspondence, telephone calls, text if you contact us. We may monitor or record communications with us in which you take part to assist with the development of our services, to train our staff and if requested by order of the court, regulatory body or law enforcement organisation.

How and what we use the information for:

We collect your personal information to provide you with a quote, administer your agreement. It allows us to send you (non - marketing information) information such as newsletters, send statements and invoices to you.

We may to share your personal information with a third-party service provider

Updating information

Please inform us if any of the personal information we hold about you needs to be correct of updated.

We work hard to keep your personal data safe, we use appropriate combination of technical and organisations measures to ensure as far as possible the confidently integrity and the availability of your information at all times.

Complaints:

We will do our best to ensure that your personal information is treated securely. However, if you do have any complaints please get in touch info@pitmansremovals.co.uk